Womens' Rally Days At Summer Conference

In accord with the custom of the past years the management of the summer conferences has invited the women of the churches of Franklin County and the neighboring counties to meet on Thursday July 9th for a day with The Home Missions Conference. The women will gather at the Seminary grounds and attend the regular conference exercises and at 12.30 o'clock noon, coffee will be served at Betty Moody cottage to those bringing a basket lunch. At 1.30 p.m., this group will adjourn to Sage Chapel when a special program of addresses will be delivered by a number of persons. On July 16th a like invitation is extended again to gather at the Foreign Missionary Conference with the same arrangements for lunch and a special program in Sage Chapel.

A "Crusade" And A Circus Coming For Virginia Fresh Air Camp

Two events of special interest to Northfield people are planned to be held here in August for the benefit of Virginia Fresh Air Camp expenses. Dates will be announced later.

One is a performance of "The Children's Crusade" by the young ladies of Camp Arden, Vermont, through the kind and generous co-operation of the Misses Everts and Whitney. This will be given on the grounds of the Chateau.

The other is the 1931 edition of the famous "Children's Circus" on the grounds of Mr. and Mrs. Pitt. Seems as if half the town will be in the circus troupe! Sensational features never before dreamt of will be performed by local talent. There will be unusual sideshows and all the ballyhoo expected of a first-class circus.

Virginia Fresh Air Camp entertains free successive groups of about 25 children from New York City for two weeks each. Expenses are met by collections at the Auditorium, personal contributions, and such efforts as this circus sponsored by the children in Northfield. It is a worthy cause.

Janeway House Used As Memorial House

The De Veer Memorial House which is conducted at Ozone Park, Long Island has closed there for the summer season and transported its members with nurses and medical staff to the Janeway house on Winchester Road. The place has been occupied now for over two weeks and all are delighted with the premises and with Northfield. The management is giving serious consideration to the purchase of the property and its permanent maintenance as a home for aged women who are able to pay for their accommodations. Northfield would welcome such an institution in our midst and this large house with seventeen rooms, garages and farmers home with barns and with 31 acres of ground would make an acceptable location for an effort of this kind.

Rice—Moody Wedding

Daughter of Pres. and Mrs. Moody Marries in Middlebury College Chapel Saturday, June 27th.

Margaret Emma Moody, daughter of President and Mrs. Paul D. Moody of Middlebury College, and granddaughter of Dwight L. Moody, was married to Charles Marion Rice, Sharon, Pa., in the college chapel here last Saturday. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Samuel B. Booth of Burlington. Relatives from North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Ohio, Connecticut and New York as well as local friends and members of the college faculty, were present for the marriage, and the reception at the Chateau.

Dr. Moody gave away the bride, who was gowned in white satin with a capshaped veil of tulle, edged with Duchess lace. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses. The maid of honor was Miss Charlotte Moody, London, England, sister of the bride. The best man was Edmund B. Beaumont, Englewood, N. J., college classmate of the groom.

Since Miss Moody's graduation from Middlebury college in 1928, she has spent a year in England and on the continent, and has been in Middlebury during the past year.

Mr. Rice is the son of Frank M. Rice, prominent business man in Sharon, Pa. He is a graduate of the Hill school, class of 1924, Yale 1928, spent the following year in study and travel abroad, and is now a member of the faculty at Asheville School for Boys in North Carolina.

The bride and groom will spend the early part of the summer in the Adirondacks.

P. S. Press dispatch received too late for last weeks edition.

New Store In Brattleboro

Mr. George S. Lyle of Brattleboro will open his new store in that town at 62 Main Street on Saturday of this week carrying a full and complete line of wallpaper, paint glassware, window shades and kitchenware. He will handle the well known line of Lowe Brothers paint. He will welcome to the store all his old friends and many new ones. Attention is called to his advertisements in this paper.

Virginia Fresh Air Camp Opens

Fourth of July with all the celebration never seemed to good before to the 25 children from New York City who are enjoying the fresh air and good food of the Virginia Fresh Air camp here, which has been in operation for ten years under the guidance of Mrs. W. R. Moody. The group consists chiefly of Ukrainians, Scotch, and Irish girls between 6 and 12 years old, who because of malnutrition have been sent by the Madison Avenue Presbyterian church of New York to spend three weeks away from the dirt and heat of the city into the country.

Three different groups arrive each summer, each remaining about three weeks. July 13 and again August 7, new groups come up, made up mostly of Italians, whose transportation will be paid by the New York Herald Tribune. The City Missions sends these two last groups.

The camp consists in a lodge for reading and for meetings, and five sleeping cabins, together with an outdoor dining room, all located in the Cathedral Pines, off Birnam Road. Woods and playgrounds abound. All the sports are engaged in, a Ford beach wagon taking them all to Wanamaker lake for the daily swim. Each Sunday morning the entire group sings at the service of the Northfield Summer Conferences.

The name Virginia was given in honor of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Moody who died young. The purpose of the camp is not to teach the girls much work or study, but to give them an opportunity to play, to eat, and to sleep.

Miss Betty Corning of New York is the supervisor. Northfield Seminary girls act as counselors. These are Jeanne Stanley of East Northfield, Sally Lowe, of Camden, Maine, Margaret Wood of New Bedford, Helen Mayberry of Mount Hermon, and those who cook are Helen Ochsler and Dora Jackson of East Northfield.

Womens Foreign Missionary Conference

The next Conference to meet at Northfield during the present series of gatherings is the Women's Foreign Missionary Conference which will convene on Monday July 13th. A large attendance is expected and all the buildings on the campus will be utilized. Mrs. John M. Cratty will be chairman of the Conference.

There will be stimulating presentations of recent developments affecting the missionary enterprise. One may come into contact with world thinking, meet keen, alert missionaries, and receive first-hand information from foreign fields.

Dr. Raymond Calkins will conduct the Auditorium Bible Class and will preach on Sunday. Other Bible teachers include Dr. Emily Werner and Miss Frances Ball. Miss Gertrude Schultz will present the Mission Study Book of the year with methods. Dr. Milton T. Stauffer will conduct a Young Women's group on "The Present Trend of Foreign Missions." Other leaders expected are Dr. Eleanor Calverly, Miss Nona M. Diehl, Rev. Oscar Buck, and Mrs. Virgil Sease. Special emphasis on Children's Work will be given under the expert leadership of Mrs. C. K. Lippard and Miss Ethel Baader. Professor H. Augustine Smith of Boston University will be in charge of all the music, including the new period of morning worship and Round Top, and conduct a course on "The Fine Arts in Religion." Dr. Paul Harrison, Dr. Alden Clark, and Mr. Charles McConnell will be among the evening speakers.

Automobile Smashes At Northfield Farms

On Thursday evening while traveling south on the Farms road near Sunset Inn the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Leach a Plymouth roadster owned by Elvin J. McGuire of Greenfield who was driving south crashed into a tree after leaving the road and was badly damaged. The passengers in the car were Laura Winscott and Genevieve Zastarsky both of Greenfield—all were slightly bruised and injured and were attended by Dr. W. G. Webber who was called to the scene. Mrs. Leach opened her home to them although they went on to Greenfield after the accident. It was reported that the accident was caused by the driver temporarily taking his eyes off the road to pick up a cigarette which he had dropped to the car floor.

Sermons Published

At the service in the South Church last Sunday morning were given out copies of a pamphlet containing four discourses by Rev. Charles C. Conner delivered on suggested subjects in May as follows: American Ministers and a Future War, May 3; On Merging Local Churches, May 10; The Christian Judgment, May 17; Liberalism, May 24. Copies are still available for the people. The pamphlet is for free distribution.

Lamont—Hicks

Mr. Charles Lamont and Miss Mary E. H. Hicks, both of Orlando, Florida, were married Thursday morning, July 2, by Rev. W. W. Coe, acting pastor of the North Church, at his home at 36 Main Street. They are spending the summer here and are located at Green Gate Tea Rooms.

The Northfield Vacation Bible School Progresses

One good community feature of the D. V. B. S., that should not be overlooked is that it brings together many children who perhaps never meet each other at other times. For instance, Northfield center sent the most children (27) on Thursday when the attendance was 66. East Northfield sent 23, Winchester Road 4, and West Northfield 4. There were also 8 summer residents. The difficulty of transportation has prevented other children from the suburbs from attending.

The class of 20 junior boys had 100% attendance four days out of five last week. Out of 66 enrolled there were 57 children with 100% attendance the first week. The enrollment had risen to 74 by last Tuesday including 14 kindergarten, 14 senior boys, 12 senior girls, 20 junior boys, and 11 junior girls.

A photo of the D. V. B. S., will be taken by Roger Lyman on Thursday July 9 at 11 o'clock. Copies may be bought for 25 cents each.

This week's school outing after the Friday session will be a hike and picnic lunch. They will leave the north church at 11.45 and hike to Cathedral Pines via the Wood trail. After lunch those who wish will climb Garnet Rock. Next Friday will be the big treat!

Among story-tellers and speakers and musicians this week the D. V. B. S., is grateful to Mrs. Addison, Mrs. Birdsall, Dr. W. W. Coe, Dr. Colton, Mrs. Deming, Leon Dummell, Mrs. Clifford Field, Mrs. Lilly, Mrs. Montague, and Mrs. Dr. Webber.

Badly Burned At Greenfield Celebration

As part of Greenfield's Fourth of July celebration a huge bonfire was lighted shortly after midnight Friday at the Beacon Street playground. The great mass of material of railroad ties, boxes and barrels was fifty feet high and was soaked with hundreds of gallons of old garage waste oil. The flames shot up and burned most of the night making a spectacle seen for miles about the country side.

Harold L. Fields, superintendent of the Greenfield water department and chairman of the bonfire committee was painfully burned in starting the fire. As he threw a match into the pile the oil and its gases exploded and the flames suddenly enveloped him and burned off much of his clothing as well as that of M. D. McClellan his assistant who was nearby. Both were taken to the Franklin county hospital by Elwin L. Streeter where their injuries were treated by Dr. H. D. Stetson. At the hospital it was said that Field's burns though painful were not dangerous.

Alliance Will Meet During The Summer

The Unitarian Church Alliance held an all day session at the residence of Mrs. George N. Kidder on Parker Street on Tuesday and decided to hold their regular meetings throughout the summer for the purpose of extending sociability to Northfield's summer guests. All were agreed and pledged their enthusiasm for the summer meetings and it was decided to hold a lawn supper on the grounds of the former parsonage on Main Street the last week in July.

Student Conference

Delegates from many lands were at Williamstown this week, several of them wearing costumes of their native land to attend the World's Student Christian conference.

The visitors are housed in the dormitories of Williams college and several of the college buildings are to be opened for the meetings during the week.

The World's Student Christian federation is a league of students whose membership extends all over the world. It includes in its enrollment 300,000 young people and has a central office at Geneva, Switzerland.

Chase—Andrews

News has been received of the marriage last Saturday of Miss Ethel Andrews to Rev. Bernard Levi Chase of Worcester, Mass.

Miss Andrews was employed as a clerk in the postoffice at Hinsdale until last February and had been employed in Northfield for the past two months.

During her residence here she made many friends.

UNITARIAN CHURCH NOTES

Dr. Arthur Weatherby of the University Unitarian Church of Lincoln, Nebraska spoke in the local church last Sunday. He gave a masterly and soul searching sermon on the subject, "Canst thou by searching find out God?" and showed that it is impossible for man to escape the Eternal Reality.

Dr. Weatherby is one of four prominent ministers who will conduct religious services in the Unitarian church during July. Dr. George Gilmour of Denver, Colorado will be the speaker next Sunday morning at 10.45 o'clock.

All who would know more about the teachings and principles of the Unitarian Church are asked to attend these services.

Louise Andrews Camp In Full Swing On Pierson Rd.

About 30 young women, most of whom have been attending the Northfield Girls' Conference, are spending the next few weeks at Louise Andrews Camp nearby, which was bought by a committee representing this conference in 1913 and is directed by it. The purpose is to afford young women to obtain a few weeks' rest for body and mind, especially such girls as are self-supporting. The chairman of this committee is Miss M. C. Presbrey, and the secretary is Miss Beatrice Burr, both of whom are at the camp.

The name of the camp, Louise Andrews, was given in memory of one of the girls who for many years attended the Northfield conference, and who throughout her life, which was not long, was a good influence of far-reaching extent. A book, "One Girl's Influence," by Dr. Robert E. Speer describes her life and includes her poems and several letters.

Equipment consists of one large lodge furnished with a wide porch, Cree house for sleeping quarters, several smaller cabins, and a hall where plays might be given or services held. Then there are opportunities for sports of all kinds, picnics, and hikes. The buildings are located in the midst of a pine grove and on a promontory overlooking a long valley. Secluded in the woods, the camp girls enjoy the greatest privacy.

The daily program is filled with the morning chores in connection with breakfast and cleaning of the rooms, all of which is done by the girls themselves. Then there is a short session of devotions, followed by free time for writing and reading. After lunch there is a rest period and then recreation. Evenings are often spent in reading, or around the campfire singing, or at amateur plays.

Old Birch Saved

On Sunday afternoon last a force of young men from the Seminary buildings were called to put out a fire burning on Hogsback Mountain near the "Old Birch", the largest birch tree in the world, which since its discovery and inscription is the mecca of many sightseers who come here to visit. It is probable that some visitors on the Fourth carelessly threw away a cigarette butt which may have ignited the grass and slowly burned its way toward the tree. The fire was of the slow burning and smouldering type but several tanks of chemicals were used in putting it out. It is hoped the damage to the now historic tree will not be serious.

Vandalism On The Fourth

With the ushering in of the Fourth during the night hours some persons—somewhat under suspicion—now burned down the woman's bath house at Wanamaker Lake and in so doing badly injured by the burning three fine pine trees along the shores all belonging to the Northfield Schools—in another part of the town the remains of an old mill was destroyed by fire—and at several places on the highway small fires were started with oil soaked rags and old automobile tires. Various signs along the streets were pulled up and moved and some mischievous conduct reported. Any authentic information received by this paper in confidence will be turned over to the proper state and town officers for investigation and action.

Rev. Arthur Blair Resigns

The resignation of Rev. Arthur A. Blair, who for nearly nine years has served as pastor of the First Universalist church of Orange and was particularly well known among members of the Masonic fraternity was announced this week. The resignation will take effect October 1st, when he will become pastor of the Universalist church in Nashua, N. H.

Mr. Blair was a frequent visitor to Northfield and his voice was often heard at various meetings and fraternal gatherings. The Herald wishes him success in his new field of chosen endeavor.

Old Age Aid Law Goes Into Effect

The old age assistance law as amended this year by the state legislature went into effect on July first and consideration of the law as applicable to Northfield applicants will be given by our local board represented by Selectman George W. Carr. It is probable that under the law some requests will be made but they will be carefully investigated.

Summer Residents Gather

The summer residents of Mountain Park spent a social evening on the Fourth in Hope Cottage when Mrs. George H. Brown of Boston who is the guest of Mrs. Hoehn entertained with recitations, readings and whistling. The large house afforded every opportunity for a pleasant evening and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

The Community Club will hold their regular fortnightly dance at Northfield Town Hall, Saturday night, July 11. Music by Jillson's Orchestra. Adv. E. O. W.—5-29-31.

Central Vermont Wreck

Another bad train wreck on the Central Vermont burned up ten freight cars at Amherst last Sunday evening. The train was bound from New London to White River Junction. When the coupling between the engine and train broke, the cars piled up and gasoline and coal with which some of the cars were loaded made a bad fire.

Duncan Leads Tourney

The Northfield hotel staged its most successful Fourth of July golf tournament last Saturday, over the rolling fairways of the hotel layout. Bob Duncan, an employee of the hotel, playing from scratch, shot the best score of the day, carding a 75 finishing one down to par.

The net prize winners were: First, Lyman Smith of Brattleboro, 5 up on par; second R. Manning of Greenfield, three up on par; and tied for third prize were "Hoot" Gibson and Dave Akey of Greenfield, one up.

To Have A Picnic

The Northfield Grange will hold its annual picnic next Tuesday July 14th. The members of the Grange are requested to meet at the Grange Hall and 6.30 p.m., transportation will be furnished to the picnic grounds.

Electric Cooking School

The Greenfield Electric Light and Power Co., held another one of its interesting cooking schools Thursday afternoon in the Town Hall. There was a good attendance and the women were very much interested. Miss Marble had charge of the affair.

Mr. Clarence P. Buffum is the proud possessor of a new Chevrolet.

Waldo H. Stebbins has the contract for the erection of Mr. W. A. Shattuck's new house on Maple Street.

Those who attended the last Community Club dance in Town Hall were very much pleased with the music rendered. These dances should appeal to the young people of our summer residents.

It is pleasing to know that most of our citizens are cutting the grass along the highway in front of their premises and co-operating in keeping up the general good appearance of the town.

EDITORIAL

It is stated that several persons who are automobile owners and drivers are operating their cars in Northfield which bear registration plates from other states and have been so doing for not only four weeks but for a number of months. Under the law this seems to be a clear violation and penalties are provided—All residents of this state must register their cars and secure operators license in this state. Non-Residents must secure permits to operate after thirty days in the state and give proof that they are carrying the liability insurance demanded by the state. The Editor gladly gives his voice to this warning and trusts that it will be heeded.

It is evident that the town still has within its borders some hoodlums who are bent on vandalism and whose conception of fun is self satisfaction at the expense of others. Such persons seem to be lacking in not only self respect and personal character but show little respect for others. For a time they may conceal their individuality but ere long will soon be under suspicion and found out—then "when the worm turns" they will wonder why confidence in them has been destroyed and why they are not a success in the fields of commerce or industry. There will eventually be no place for them in the scheme of meritorious toil and they will have to fathom out the logic of how "the world owes them a living." The ambitions of hoodlumism never brought any reward except trouble in one way or another. When the court sets its seal on a discovered culprit the penalty is a high price to pay—whatever the penalty may be.

Hoodlumism should have no place in Northfield and our citizens through its elective officers should deal firmly with it. There should be neither fear nor favor in the prosecution of individuals found guilty of vandalism and our town should be cleared of all possible vandalism by a strong and sturdy application of the law governing the conduct of town hoodlums.

For a good many years Northfield has had a commercial organization—nearly twenty-five years but its activities have been spasmodic and its functions rather limited. Its chief accomplishment was in maintaining open roads during the winter season with nearby towns thus making traveling more convenient so that the traveler and the resident could come and go whenever necessary—and this was prior to the days of tractor plows and state control. Then its merchants would spin their yarns together and compare notes on the credit standing of their customers—of late years the effort has been to promote publicity for the town and its institutions but success has been limited owing to a lack of funds. Now it is proposed that the organization be reorganized with a selected membership with a trade division and a publicity bureau. The trades division to foster fellowship and a common understanding between merchants business and professional men and to maintain an official credit position of our citizens so that bad debts may be reduced to a minimum and obligations collected. The publicity division would be incorporated as the Northfield Publicity Bureau and would handle and effect the success of public affairs. Create new opportunities for maintaining the town in the public eye and to disseminate information to the public by means of advertising information booths and publications. This seems to be the proper status for a reorganization and The Herald promises its full support to such an endeavor. Time was when one man put Northfield "on the map" and we hear its praises sung in every land. Now it is up to some one else to see that Northfield maintains its reputation and that its attractions are still a lure to all—and that responsibility is ours. Will we make good?

How Do You Drive?

State To Watch You

"Keep to the right" on the road and slow down at corners.—During the month of July police officers of the state have been requested to observe these violations of law and so together with speed—faulty brakes and poor lights—you—if found guilty—will receive the blue ticket.

With the four violations known to constitute approximately 90 per cent of the serious accidents which occur, the governor's committee on street and highway safety urged particular vigilance on the part of all officers in its regular weekly campaign letter to the police chiefs of the state.

"Chapter 89, section 1. All motor vehicle operators when meeting another vehicle shall drive to the right of the middle of the road.

"Chapter 867, 1928, section 3:—Section 1 (a). Except on one-way streets all motor vehicles shall be driven upon the right half of the highway, except when overtaking and passing another vehicle or preparatory to making a left turn.

"Chapter 90, section 14. All motor vehicle operators when approaching an intersection of streets where view is obstructed shall slow down.

The Poet's Corner

VERMONT

Vermont is such a wondrous state
And sings its own high praises,
And everything it has is great—
Just hear the song it raises!
Vermont has mountains grand and high,
And valleys cool and shady,
And magic scenes—a tall clear sky—
Just list' to Daniel Cady!

Vermont can boast of laughing stream,
Of sweet and singing river,
Of sunrise hue and sunset gleam,
And all the heavenly Giver.
Doth give to grace the out-of-doors—
Hills high and valley shady—
Oh! how the sunlight's glory pours!
Just go, ask Daniel Cady!

Its skies are bluest of blue skies,
Its green hills, greenest beauty,
Its very folk (it's no surprise)
Are never lax at duty.
You'll ever meet in grand Vermont
Strong man and gentle lady;
No friend can fail, no foe can daunt—
It's true—ask Daniel Cady!

And Vermont proudly boasts about
Its heritage of ages,
And of its wealth you hear it shout,
And then about its sages.
It urges men be wise and wed
Some Vermont Sue or Sadie;
Its boosters never go to bed—
That's true of Daniel Cady!

Yes, old Vermont has that and this,
And much of worth and merit,
And lovely hills and dales of bliss
And loyal zest and spirit;
And wildly cries its wares afar
Till we get tired and "jaded,"
Yet ever shouts, 'neath sun and star,
Persistent Daniel Cady.

Yes, Cady from his tuneful haunt,
One song is ever singing;
"Vermont, Vermont, Vermont, Vermont—
Vermont," he's ever singing—
And still "Vermont" and more "Vermont"—
"Vermont's sweet vales are shady"—
Vermont's loud singer naught can daunt—
Vermont's own Daniel Cady.

You'll tear your lungs and burst
your throat,
Your treasures proudly vaunting,
And life your clarion, boastful note,
Forevermore Vermonting.
But one thing (here's a bitter pill!)
Crag's high or valley shady—
Vermont you have no Bunker Hill!
We challenge Daniel Cady!

"A SOLITARY WAY"

PSALM cxvii, 1 to 9
Proverbs xiv, 10; Corinthians ii, 11
There is a mystery in human hearts,
And though we be encircled by a host
Of those who love us well, and are beloved,
To every one of us, from time to time,
There comes a sense of utter loneliness.
Our dearest friend is "stranger" to our joy,
And cannot realize our bitterness.
"There is not one who really understands,
Not one to enter into all I feel."
Such is the cry of each of us in turn.
We wander in "a solitary way."
No matter what or where our lot may be;
Each heart, mysterious even to itself
Must live its inner life in solitude.

Job vii, 17; Matthew x, 37

And would you know the reason why this is?
It is because the Lord desires our love.
In every heart He wishes to be first.
He therefore keeps the secret-key Himself.
To open all its chambers, and to bless
With perfect sympathy, and holy peace,
Each solitary soul which comes to Him.
So when we feel this loneliness, it is
The voice of JESUS saying, "Come to Me."
And every time we are "not understood,"
It is a call to us to come again;
For Christ alone can satisfy the soul.
And those who walk with Him from day to day
Can never have "a solitary way."

Isaiah xlviii, 16; Psalm xxxiv, 22

And when beneath some heavy cross you faint,
And say, "I cannot bear this cross alone,"
You say the truth. Christ made it purposely
So heavy that you must return to Him.
The bitter grief, which "no one understands,"
Conveys a secret message from the King.
Entrusting you to come to Him again.
The Man of Sorrows understands it well.
In all points tempted He can feel with you;
You cannot come too often, or too near—
God is infinite in love and grace.
His presence satisfies the longing soul,
And those who walk with Him from day to day
Can never have "a solitary way."

Dear Mr. Editor,

The above poem has brought much comfort and consolation to many aching hearts—in times of suffering—sorrow and trial. Will you be kind enough to publish it for the good it may do.

No Chance For Breach Of Promise Suit

Pat O'Brien, the dynamic young actor who plays the leading role in "The Front Page," current attraction at the Brattleboro Auditorium theatre, was the central figure in a real-life romance during the filming of the picture.

Summoned to Hollywood on short notice for "The Front Page," assignment, which incidentally is his first screen role, O'Brien was forced to postpone his scheduled wedding to Eloise Taylor, Broadway actress.

On arrival in the movie capital
O'Brien learned on reading his lines for "The Front Page," that a certain scene called on him to apply at the county clerk's office for a marriage license, with his prospective bride, played by Mary Brian in the picture.

When the scene was "shot" several weeks later in the Los Angeles county court-house, Miss Taylor was present, and she and O'Brien obtained their license, and were wed in the same building several days afterwards.

Miss Brian and Lewis Milestone, director of the picture, acted as witnesses for the ceremony.

"The Front Page," which was produced by Howard Hughes, of "Hell's Angels" fame, is the 1931 sensation of the screen, and is drawing record crowds.

The People's Forum

To the Editor:—

Is it not time to take prompt and vigorous action before an epidemic of crime and lawlessness breaks out in Northfield? We have had enough of acts of vandalism and petty thieving.
The time for leniency and soft-peddling has about passed: it has not served to check matters. Evidently law and justice must take the culprits in hand.

While it is primarily up to our police officers to stamp out an epidemic with the help of the citizens, parents and other guardians should realize that they will have to meet the disgrace and expense of the detection and conviction of minors under their guardianship. Perhaps the younger people of today are no worse than in previous generations, but the line has to be drawn when conditions get too bad. Acts of thoughtlessness and often thoughtlessness of gang spirit must not be allowed to degenerate into common thievery and destructiveness.
It is no kindness to any person to palliate wrongdoing and get slack in discipline.

The best way to handle those who may be guilty of recent lawless acts, young or old, is for their honest, law-abiding companions to frown on such tendencies, and if necessary expose the roughnecks and incipient criminals beforehand. Perhaps they would not do such things in their sober moments. Better be sober beforehand, rather than when time hangs heavy as a prisoner in the county jail!

Surely it behoves good citizens to help authorities run down the vandals before the reputation of the town is soiled and the criminals themselves get emmeshed in hard habits.

Nautical Instruction
For Boys and Young Men

In order to interest the boys and young men of America in the advantages offered by the United States Merchant Marine as a career, the first twenty-five boys between the ages of 10 and 20 years and residents of this state, who send in their applications to the American Nautical Academy, given a course in nautical instruction South Boston, Massachusetts, will be in their own homes by mail.

There is no tuition charge for the instruction, which includes, in so far as it is possible to teach them by mail, the following subjects: General characteristics of ships; Daily routine and duties in connection with life on board ship; Use of life buoys; life on board ship; Use of life buoys; First Aid; Signals (International and Morse Code); the Compass, log and lead; Ground tackle and deck seamanship; the duties of lookouts; the watch in port and at sea; Marline-spike seamanship; Cordage; Boats, types, nomenclature, gears, and Duties of a boatkeeper.

Examinations will be held at stated intervals and boys receiving a certain grade are eligible to compete for the annual awards offered by the Academy. Students who pass their first examination are enrolled on the records of the Academy as "Apprentice Nautical Cadets" and may wear the uniform and insignia of the Academy. Cadets who complete the course with a passing grade are awarded an Academy Certificate.

New Quarter Dollar

Information received by the Northfield National Bank states that a new quarter dollar will be issued next year by the Treasury Department in commemoration of the Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Birth of George Washington.

Robert J. Grant, Director of the Mint, acting under the direction of Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, has just sent a letter to prominent sculptors inviting submission of models for the obverse side and reverse side of the new coin. These models will be received at the office of the Director of the Mint, in the Treasury Department, up to and including October 15. It is felt that this will allow ample time for the artists to perfect their designs and afford the Treasury time to prepare dies for the production of the coin for distribution beginning February 22, 1932.

Co-operative Bank Gains

The close of the twenty-seventh year of the Greenfield Co-operative Bank was marked by the annual meeting last night. At that time the twenty-sixth report of Treasurer Henry S. Franklin was read. The assets of the bank are $2,484,504.43, which is a gain of $138,649.43 over last year. The guaranty and surplus fund is $88,885.86 a gain of $8,729.92 over last year. The bank has declared 5 1/2 per cent dividends on regular shares and 5 per cent upon the paid-up shares. Shares of the 53d series are now offered.

His Life Story

Two men were talking—each were telling of their life's experience—finally one said:

"I have been in business since some 40 years ago and have been pleasing and displeasing the public since. I have been cussed and discussed; boycotted and talked about; lied about and lied to; held up, hung up, robbed, put out and burned out; pitied and discouraged; patronized and encouraged! The only reason that I am staying in business now is to see what in time will happen next. This is my life story."

Something New:—A new, up-to-date state approved grease dispensary has been added to the Greasing Department at the Morgan Garage, Northfield. This machine assures the customer of Accurate Measure and is the Last Word in Cleanliness. The Dispenser works under Air Pressure which forces the Grease into the Grease Boxes Without loss by spilling. A dial on the Gauge shows the exact amount of lubricant going into the car and the Customer pays only for what he actually gets. Adv. 4-24-tf

WHEN you set out to buy tires, don't you really want the most miles and the utmost in safety at the lowest possible price.

That being your objective, which tire should you buy?

If the experience of 20,000,000 motorists means anything, you should certainly buy Goodyears.

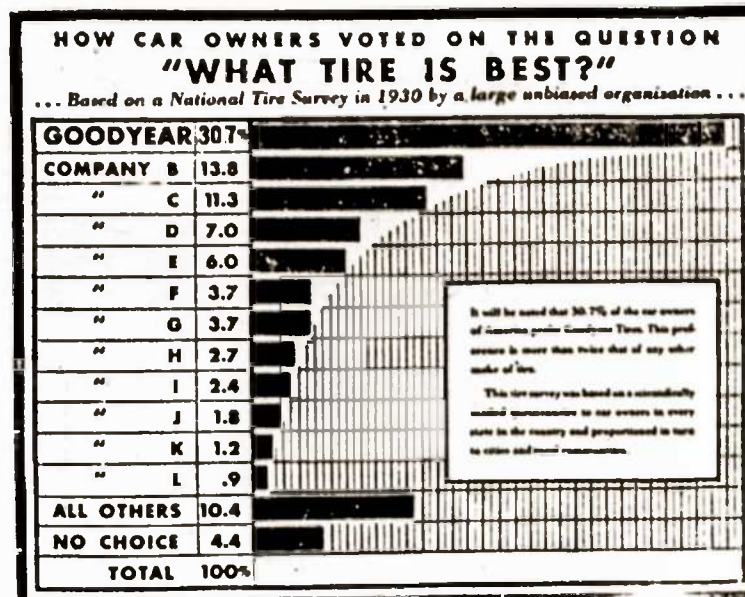

But if you try to puzzle through the welter of statistics on thicknesses, weights and diameters you lose the main issue and are as much at sea as ever.

The one and only reliable guide for you to follow is the seasoned preference of the public.

And that preference is overwhelmingly for Goodyear.

This fact expressed year after year by Goodyear's great leadership is concretely told again in the findings of an impartial investigation made by an unbiased dependable institution that asked 205,000 car owners this simple question:

QUESTION: "Regardless of price, convenience, etc., what make of tire do you consider the BEST tire made?"

There's the only buying guide that means anything to you car owners.

Automobile Tours And Trips From Northfield

SEE PORTLAND MAINE

Portland, the Forest City, should be on every motorist's visiting list. Not only because it is the gateway to the glorious woods of Maine, but because of its personal charm and historic interest.

On the corner of Fore and Hancock streets you will find Longfellow's birthplace, now restored and preserved by the International Longfellow Society.

Down in the retail district stands the house where Longfellow lived as a boy. Built in 1785 by General Peleg Wadsworth, grandfather of the poet, this venerable building now belongs to the Maine Historical Society whose headquarters are next door. Both buildings should be visited, for they are rich in their collections of manuscripts, pictures and early American furniture.

Another birthplace of international interest: Williston Congregational Church. Here, just fifty years ago, the Rev. Francis E. Clark founded that world wide movement, the Christian Endeavor Society.

As you wander around this city of magnificent trees, pause a moment at the old Eastern Cemetery, said to have been used since 1687. Among the weatherbeaten tombs you will find that of Commodore Edward Preble, commander of the American fleet during the war with Tripoli and sometimes called the father of the American navy.

Side by side in this same cemetery two mortal enemies were buried on the same day: Lieut William Burrows of the American brig Enterprise and Captain Blythe of the British brig Boxer. Both Commanders were killed in the engagement off Seguin Island in September, 1813.

On Washington Street stands a building whose story you should inquire into. What incident of revolutionary days makes this once fashionable tavern interesting?

Don't miss the views from Portland's beautifully landscaped parkways. From Eastern Promenade you overlook the harbor and isle-studded Casco Bay. From the Western Promenade the view beckons you on to explore majestic Maine. Do you realize that here you are only at the threshold? Beyond lie 33,000 square miles of woods, 1600 lakes, and hundreds of miles of good roads to take you to every part of this land of outdoor health.

Your Portland visit makes a most fascinating trip from Northfield. Consult your Socony maps for choice of routes.

Visit Deerfield, Mass.

New England cities contain many fine collections of colonial relics but none preserves, and evokes, so realistically the spirit of colonial days as does Deerfield, Mass. (D-8 on your Socony Map.)

Saunter down "The Street" as the village is sometimes called. You will be carried back a century or two. Trees, gardens, houses, the very atmosphere, all recall colonial times. No other village in the East is so well documented on its history. None has a more complete collection of the goods and chattels of our forefathers. The motorist with a feeling for Americans will head his list of tours with Deerfield.

As you no doubt remember, Deerfield was the scene of horrible massacres in the seventeenth century. Two hundred and fifty years ago this was the northwest frontier of New England, and as such was the scene of fierce and murderous onslaughts by the Indians. See Memorial Hall with its tablets telling the tragedy of the pioneers.

Among more than twenty well preserved colonial houses you should visit the home of Edward Hitchcock, leading educator of his day; the very old Fry house, once a tavern in which Benedict Arnold bought supplies for our army; the Willard house where Greeley and Emerson were guests.

Most cities have museums. Deerfield is one.—Tours and Detours.

Don't Drive a Dirty Car.—We have Facilities for Washing and Polishing Your Car in a first-class manner. Prices for Washing are $1.50, $2.50 and $3.50. Electric Polish, $7.50. The Morgan Garage, Northfield. Adv. 4-24-tf
